Jeff is originally from Derby, KS and grew up on a peach farm. He graduated from KSU in 1998 and 2000 with a bachelor's and master's degree in Civil Engineering respectively. He has worked as both a City Engineer and Director of Public Works for Manhattan, KS and as a consulting engineer for two different consulting companies. Jeff is currently an owner with SMH Consultants in Manhattan and has been there since 2007. Jeff is the Engineering Division Manager at SMH which employs 20 People. Since Jeff hasn't found anyone to hire him for fishing, hunting, or flying he will be doing this for a while. His real dream job is teaching people how to retire and then retiring himself at age 40. He's not sure that will happen but holds out hope. When not dreaming or working Jeff gets his enjoyment from family. He's been married to Jennifer for longer than she will claim him for and together they have a boy and a girl ages 3 and 4 that have essentially and gladly taken the ripe age of 40 out of the retirement plan.
