

Jenn Tozlian, CPA is a principal at KCoe Isom, LLP. Jenn specializes in auditing and indirect cost rate reports for architectural and engineering firms, helping them adhere to FAR (Federal Acquisition Regulation) and AASHTO (American Association of State Highway and Transportation Officials) requirements. She enables businesses to keep valuable contracts on large-scale construction projects that draw on state and federal funds. With more than 15 years of audit experience, Jenn has worked with architecture and engineering (A&E), agricultural, food manufacturing, non-profit organizations and telecommunications organizations.

Prior to joining K-Coe Isom, Jenn was a partner with Stoughton Davidson Accountancy in Fresno, CA. She was also a senior assurance accountant with a global CPA firm based in Silicon Valley. Jenn brings efficiency to her hands-on approach so that business owners can focus their attention on securing and growing new opportunities.
