No. 7 – February 28, 2014

The Legislature completed their work Thursday afternoon ahead of the “turnaround” deadline, which is the date by which most bills have to be passed by their chamber of origin or be dead for the Session. There was a lot of activity this week, but not a lot of activity on bills of impact to ACEC of Kansas.

Sub for HB 2246, which provides liability protection for firms doing peer review, passed the House last Friday and has now been referred to the Senate Commerce Committee. No hearings are scheduled at this time. ACEC of Kansas will testify in support again when a hearing is scheduled.

SB 54 is still in the House Federal and State Affairs Committee. This is our bill updating the licensure statutes for the State Board of Technical Professions. It sounds like a hearing will be scheduled the second week of March. ACEC of Kansas will testify in support again.

HB 2608, which would increase the mill levy counties can assess to raise money for roads and bridges, will have a hearing next Thursday in the House Taxation Committee.

HB 2573, which would create the airport revolving fund, has been “blessed”. The deadlines that apply to legislation do not apply to legislation that has been referred at any time to an exempt committee, referred to as “blessing” the bill. HB 2573 has been referred to the House Taxation Committee, which is exempt. That means the bill is still alive and can be acted on at any time this session.

HB 2616, which would allow Kansas to create a State OSHA to take over duties from the federal agency, passed the full House Thursday on a vote of 93-30. It will be referred to a Senate Committee for hearings soon.

The Legislature is off next Monday and Tuesday, so next week will be short as they get settled back in and start the process of hearing bills the opposing chamber has passed. Stay tuned...
